RHNA ACTION: Email your CITY COUNCIL

Directions:

1. Call City Hall or check your city website for the email address to submit comments.
2. Subject Line: Appeal RHNA Allocations
3. Send a cc to info@catalystsca.org
4. Invite 5-10 others to email, too.

Dear City Council: SAMPLE EMAIL: Adapt to fit your own style.
RHNA numbers allocated to our city are unrealistic and unattainable. One City Planner wrote to this sobering statement to the City Council:

Staff believes it is important to submit an appeal letter due to the unrealistic housing targets set for the City and the State' approach to undermine local control by setting unrealistic numbers.

We citizens count on you to represent us, not kowtow to regional and state bureaucrats. RHNA numbers represents the interests of outside corporate developers (like the corporate raiders of the 1980's) looking to make big bucks by acquiring our homes and land as if they are "undervalued assets." The RHNA numbers don't support sustainability, equity or affordability.

I have two requests:

1. Please file an appeal objecting to the RHNA allocations of _(city)_____. The deadline is July 9.
2. Join the legal action initiated in Alameda. File an amicus ("friend of the court") brief.

For more information about these two actions, go to <https://catalystsca.org>.
Thank you for your service to our community.
